

Celebrate the Season

at Highland Memorial Park's 19th Annual Christmas Remembrance Service

Sunday, December 8, 2019
5:00 pm • Highland Memorial Park

One Rhode Island Avenue, Johnston, RI

This non-denominational event offers an opportunity for families throughout Rhode Island to join in the holiday spirit of giving and pay respect to the memory of their deceased loved ones no matter where they are laid to rest.

...Giving

Families are encouraged to bring an unwrapped new toy for needy children.

Remembrance...

Beginning December 2, 2019, families can bring in their pewter ornaments and they will be hung by cemetery staff. The cemetery staff will hang all pewter ornaments saved by the cemetery, which is approximately 1,000 family ornaments which will remain displayed on the trees until January 2, 2020.

The event will feature:

- The Meaning of Christmas by:
Reverend Father Albert D. Ranallo – St. Ann's Church
- Special presentation by:
Johnston High School Treble Choir
- Holiday Group Singing
- Ceremonial lighting of Christmas trees

All ages are welcome

Ceremony to be held inside Chapel Mausoleum

Refreshments available immediately following the ceremony.

Event will be held despite inclement weather.
